

The Ultimate Mother's Day Gift Guide

Twenty-five products for the active women in your life

The Editors

May 8, 2017

Ali Carr Troxell is a former Outside editor, athlete, and style-forward mom with two beautiful babies (she just had her second last week). So we thought she'd be the perfect person to put together our Mother's Day buying guide, which features 25 active and lifestyle products below. Make sure to check out some additional staff picks at the end.

Nite Ize BugLit LED Micro Flashlight ($13)

(Nite Ize)

This bendy and lightweight flashlight is perfect for late-night reading. Mom can just lay back, set it on her stomach, and read away. It can also be used as a regular flashlight, with an effective range up to 50 feet. — Olivia Harlow, editorial producer
